

X-35 ONE DESIGN CLASS Guidelines for event

(World & Continental Championships)

Approved X-35 International Board Meeting 27th November 2010

Proposal

The Yacht Club (s) shall send the proposal of application for World or Continental championship to the Chairman of X-35 One Design Class through a national class. In this proposal Y.C. shall confirm to have read and respect these guidelines.

Approval

The International board of X-35 One Design Class assigns the event

Date of event

Chairman of X-35 One Design Class and Yacht Club (s) agree on date of event. Every change of date shall be approved by Chairman.

Notice of Race and Sailing Instructions

Rules according to ISAF standard guide. Rule class. ISAF OSR and ISAF Regulation 22.

Official language is English. All notices may also be published in home country language. The English text will prevail.

Published by the organizers. The International One Design class and national class check and provide support.

Entry fee 500 € or equivalent maximum per yacht.

At least 3 days for measurements in prior to start the races.

10 races, 4 days of races plus reserve day, maximum 3 races a day, 4 races shall be completed, to constitute the valid series for the assignment of the title. 1 discard when 5 races completed. The reserve day shall be used if 6 races are not completed in the first 4 days of races.

Race length approx. 75 minutes, length according to wind condition. Windward-leeward race.

Registration with organizing club. Pre-registration may be done via Yacht Club or event homepages. The lists are published also on the homepages of ICA.

All yachts shall hold valid third-party liability insurance, with a minimum cover of Euro 1.000.000,00 or equivalent, and a copy must be handed to organizers prior to the first start.

Race Committee and Protest Committee

International Jury according to ISAF class status.

Approved and experienced race officer for one design classes.

On the water jury, one judge every 12 yachts.

Measurer Committee and Yacht Inspection

Class Chief Measurer and approved and experienced measurers X-35 class. One measurer every 12 yachts.

Facilities to weigh and lift yachts, dynamometer with recent certificate maximum 6 months.
2 series of X-35 templates. Holding equipment to manage templates.

Equipment check on all participants. Lifeline check and seal according OSR 3.14.2.

Sail measurement facilities.

Inspections in prior to start the races, on water and after each race.

At least 40% of yacht shall be checked on weight, on templates and sail.

All teams to hand in sailsticker list (Pre designed sheet available from class)

All yachts to hand in safety check list (Pre designed sheet available from class)

Crew

Crew list (Pre designed spreadsheet available from class) shall be sent to organizers at least two weeks before the event (pre list dead line). Crew list shall contain the ISAF Sailor Identity and Classification Code. Participant crew list, shall be checked at least one week before the event by ICA and shall be published on either Yacht Club, Event or class homepages and sent to ISAF. ISAF will check the status and make inquiries where necessary. Yacht Club shall ask to ISAF for a person to support the classification process and check.

Regarding the ISAF Regulation 22 (Classification Code), Crew Deadline (22.4.1) shall be the first day of measurement, Classification Protest Time Limit shall 24 hrs before the start of first race.

Weight of all crew.

Others

Logistics - The organizing club helps and inform about accommodation, transport and hoisting facilities.

- Berthing must be free during the event. All competitors shall have a dedicated berthing area, together.

Social Events - Recommended are 3 sponsored events: Opening, mid event and price giving ceremony

Sponsors - The organizing club arranges for event sponsoring.

Press - Press releases shall be published and circulated both up the event and during

- ISAF, X-35 Association and X-Yachts shall receive copies and may publish them on their respective homepages